

Dr. Anu Prasannan

Dr. Anu Prasannan completed her B.A., LL.B. and LL.M. from Kerala University and was First Rank holder in LL.M with specialisation in Administrative Law. She was also awarded Cullen Law Prize for the highest percentage of marks in Administrative Law. She pursued her M.Phil. & PhD from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and was awarded PhD on the topic “Implementation of the United Nations Convention on Disability: A Case Study of India” in 2012.

Prior to joining Karnataka State Law University, she served as a Central Government employee under the aegis of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs. She has presented papers at National and International Seminars and was also awarded Best article award in the International Seminar on Victimisation and Justice Administration Organised by G.R. Kare College of Law, Goa. She has also several publications to her credit.