Moot Problem

Mr. Sampath belonged to a poor family from Navadurga in Karnataka. He used to get fascinated by looking into the life style of elite class. He was very obedient student during his college life securing distinction in examinations. From child hood he wished that he should earn more money in a proper manner and lead a lavish life. After completion of Bachelor Degree in June 2012, he was in search of a job. Meanwhile he met one Mr. Sandy in November 2012, who is involved in sand business and offered Mr. Sampath to be a partner. Mr. Sampath thought that it would be a proper platform to earn more profit in the sand business and agreed to be a partner. Mr. Sandy and Mr. Sampath came into close contact with most of the builders and developers of Construction Company in Navaduga and supplied sand to them in spite of scarcity of sand. Sand business fetched them good profit and Mr. Sampath purchased a new flat and a luxurious car in his home town within one year. One fine day, Mr. Sandy and his partner Mr. Sampath were booked under the Karnataka Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug-offenders, Gamblers, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Slum-grabbers and Video or Audio Pirates, (Amendment) Act, 2014. Widowed mother of Mr. Sampath approached an NGO from Navaduga 'Peoples protection Union'(PPU) contending that he has been made a scape goat by the group of people who does not like his progress within short span of time. PPU has filed a writ petition before the High Court challenging the Constitutional validity of the Karnataka Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug-offenders, Gamblers, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Slum-grabbers and Video or Audio Pirates, (Amendment) Act, 2014 as arbitrary and violative of Art. 21 of the Constitution.
