17.3 The University may recognize a Post-Graduate Centre as a Research Centre provided the following conditions are satisfied, namely:

(a) There should be adequate number of faculty members eligible to be recognized as research supervisors.

(b) There should be separate administrative and au's staff for research centre.

(c) The post-graduate centre should have required infrastructure and supporting administrative and research promotion facilities- such as earmarked library facilities- a minimum of 15,000 volumes of quality books of which at least 5,000 volumes shall be related to higher education and research, subscription to 50 journals, subscription to databases of which at least one will provide access to judgments, reports, journals of foreign states, separate space in library for researchers, in-house peer reviewed law journal, computer facilities and uninterrupted power supply.

(d) The provisions relating to recognition of research supervisors under these ordinances will apply mutatis mutandis to research centres also.

17.4 In the case of interdisciplinary subjects, a candidate may have two supervisors of which one is the Research Supervisor and another is Co-Supervisor. However, either the Research Supervisor or Co-Supervisor shall be from the University or the Research Centre.

17.5 A Research Supervisor shall not opt to become Co-Supervisor for more than two candidates.

17.6 No Research Supervisor shall accept the assignment as Research Supervisor in any other University without the permission of Karnataka State Law University.

18.0 Guide

18.1 Each Research Supervisor who is a professor, at any given point of time, should not guide more than eight, an associate professor should not guide more than six and an assistant professor should not guide more than four Ph.D. scholars of which at least one seat each shall be reserved for (a) SC, (b) ST and (c) OBC candidates.

18.2 In the case of Research Supervisors who have candidates registered under them in other Universities, the Doctoral Committee shall take the number of candidates working under them in other Universities while allocating candidates to them. The outer limit of candidates as stipulated above shall apply to them.

18.3 The seats reserved for SC and ST candidates shall be interchangeable (i.e., SC vacancy shall be filled with ST candidate and vice-versa if there is no eligible candidate from SC or ST). However, they shall not be transferred to general pool.

18.4 Whenever a Supervisor leaves the University temporarily for a period of more than one year, the Supervisor shall continue to provide guidance through any suitable mode of communication. During such period of absence of the guide, all correspondence with the University shall be made through the Head of the Research Centre. All such arrangements shall be made with the approval of the Registrar

18.5 If a teacher, who is a recognized Supervisor, is appointed or comes on transfer or for any other reason from another University or Institution to Karnataka State Law University, he/she shall declare to the Doctoral Committee the number of candidates already registered under him/her in the earlier place of work.

18.6 No Research Supervisor shall be allotted/allocated his/her relative as a candidate for the Ph.D. Programme.

19.0 Provision for Co-Supervisor

19.1 A candidate may be allotted more than one Supervisor depending on the topic of research.

19.2 In the case of inter-disciplinary topic, a candidate may have two Supervisors of whom one is a Research Supervisor and another is a Co-Supervisor. The Research Supervisor shall be from the Research Centre, whereas the Co-Supervisor may be from the same or from another Research Center.

20.0 Change of Research Supervisor

20.1 Generally, change of Research Supervisor shall not be permitted.

20.2 Under extraordinary circumstances, such as death or discontinuation of service or disability on health grounds of the Supervisor or transfer of the Supervisor, the change of Research Supervisor shall be permitted by the University, notwithstanding the maximum number of candidates, at the request of the candidate and on the recommendation of the Head of the Research Centre and approval of the Doctoral Committee.

20.3 A change of Supervisor may be allowed with the consent of the candidate and both the Supervisors (current and proposed) and the approval from the Doctoral Committee and the University. Further, in case where such a change necessitates change of topic, the same shall be approved by the Doctoral Committee.

- 20.4 In case of any conflict between the Research Supervisor and the Candidate, the Head of the Research Centre, on the receipt of request letter either from the Candidate or from the Research Supervisor or both, shall refer the matter to the Doctoral Committee. The Doctoral Committee shall examine the case and send its report / recommendation to the Vice-Chancellor. The decision of the Vice-Chancellor shall be final in this regard.

21.0 Submission of Thesis

- 21.1 Every candidate shall present a pre-submission colloquium to the Doctoral Committee before the submission of synopsis.
- 21.2 Subject to the above minimum and maximum period for submission of thesis, every candidate, six months prior to the probable date of submission of thesis, shall submit an application along with twenty copies of synopsis of the thesis through the Research Supervisor to the Head of the Research Centre for permission to submit the thesis. The Head of the Research Centre shall arrange to place the candidate's application and synopsis before the Doctoral Committee provided that the candidate has published two research papers in the refereed / reputed journals (including the papers accepted for publication). He / She is required to produce proof / proof of acceptance of research paper to the Doctoral Committee during his / her pre-submission colloquium.

The candidate shall enclose the following along with Synopsis:

- Confirmed registration certificate.
- Course-work marks sheet.
- Proof of two research articles in the area of research.

- 21.3 Considering the work of the candidate, and his / her performance at the pre submission colloquium, also the publications, preparation of draft thesis, besides other technical aspects, the Doctoral Committee shall permit the candidate to submit the thesis.
- 21.4 Every candidate shall (not later than six months after obtaining permission from the Doctoral Committee for submission of thesis) submit four copies of the thesis both hard and soft to the Registrar (Evaluation) through the Research Supervisor and the Head of the Research Centre concerned. The candidate shall also pay the prescribed submission fee, and produce "No Due Certificates" from the Head of the Research Centre concerned, University Librarian and Hostel Warden.
- 21.5 (a) In the event, the candidate fails to submit the thesis within the stipulated period, in exceptional cases, where valid reasons exist, candidate's request for extension may be considered in the discretion of the Doctoral Committee and an extension of a term of six months may be granted.
- (b) The copies of the thesis shall be bound in accordance with the following specifications:
- (c) Size of the Paper: Size of the paper shall be A4 except for drawings, graphs, labels and maps. A margin of one and half inches shall be maintained on the left hand side of the paper.
- The thesis shall be word processed using 1.5 line spacing, 12 fonts times new roman, on one side of the paper
- 21.6 Every candidate shall include in the thesis a declaration to the effect that the thesis submitted is a record of research work done by the candidate during the period of study, and that it has not previously formed the basis for the award of any Degree / Diploma / Associateship / Fellowship or other similar titles by this University or any other University.
- 21.7 The thesis shall be subjected to the plagiarism norms as prescribed by the competent authorities from time to time.

22.0 Adjudication of the Ph.D. Thesis

22.1 The Ph.D. thesis shall be adjudicated by a Board of Examiners consisting of the concerned Research Supervisor and two external members to be chosen by the Vice Chancellor.

22.2 Submission of the Panel of experts:

(a) The Chairperson of the concerned P.G. Board of Studies shall prepare the panel of examiners in consultation with the concerned Research Supervisor and submit to the Registrar (Evaluation).

(b) The panel shall include ten experts consisting of not more than five experts from the State : Central Universities / Premier Institutions within the State and remaining drawn from Foreign Universities or Central Universities / Premier Institutions / Other Universities within the Country.

(c) In all cases, it is desirable to provide along with the expert's Name his/her Designation, complete official Postal Address, e-mail ID and cell number wherever possible.

22.3 In case, the panel of experts is exhausted the chairperson of the concerned Board of Studies shall submit a fresh panel of experts.

22.4 While preparing the panel of experts, the concerned Supervisor shall include the names of only those experts who are in the cadre of Associate Professor and Professor.

22.5 Examiners appointed to adjudicate the thesis shall send the report to the Registrar (Evaluation) within 45 days from the date of dispatch of the thesis. Such report shall include:

- i) a critical account of the work of the candidate as embodied in the thesis and an evaluation of the work in terms of its contribution to the advancement of knowledge.

- ii) details of questions to be asked or points to be clarified at the viva-voce examination separately; and
 - iii) a definite recommendation as to whether the Ph.D. Degree should be awarded or not in the proforma supplied by the University.
- 22.6 If the report is not received by the University from the external examiner within a maximum period of 45 days from the date of dispatch of thesis, a reminder shall be sent. However, if the report is not received by the University from the external examiner within a maximum period of 45 days from the date of reminder, the thesis may be referred to the another examiner from the same panel, with due intimation to the former examiner that he need not evaluate the thesis.
- 22.7 On both the external examiners giving definite recommendation for the award of the degree, the candidate shall be eligible to appear for the open viva-voce examination which is mandatory. If one of the examiners gives a definite recommendation against the award of the degree, the thesis shall be referred to third external examiner. If the report of such examiner is favorable, then the candidate shall be eligible to appear for the viva-voce examination, otherwise the thesis shall be rejected. On both the examiners giving definite recommendation against the award of the degree, the thesis shall be rejected.
- 22.8 If one of the examiners makes a recommendation for resubmission of the thesis, after incorporating the suggestions made by him, the Registrar shall accordingly communicate the same to the candidate and the Research Supervisor. Further, the thesis shall be resubmitted after carrying out the modifications, within six months from the date of such communication to the candidate.
- 22.9 If an examiner has recommended for minor changes or alteration or modifications in the thesis such changes shall be incorporated and certified by the Research Supervisor and the Head of the Research Centre, without referring back the thesis to the examiner.

IQAC COORDINATOR
Karnataka State Law University

- 22.10 The candidate and the Research Supervisor shall be informed about the queries raised by the examiners soon after receiving the same from the examiners.
- 22.11 No candidate shall, however, be permitted to re-submit the thesis more than once.
- 22.12 The Library copy in standard hardbound form and a soft copy in pdf format shall be submitted after the conduct of the Viva-Voce examination.
- 22.13 If the Research Supervisor expires after the submission of thesis but before evaluation, the thesis shall be evaluated by another Indian examiner in the panel.

23.0 Viva-Voce Examination

23.1 An open Viva-Voce Examination shall be conducted on receipt of satisfactory reports on the thesis from all the examiners. The Viva-Voce shall be conducted in the Research Centre at the University by the Board constituted as follows :

- i) The Head of the Research Centre - Chairperson
- ii) The Research Supervisor - Member
- iii) At least one of the external examiners - member.
- iv) However, under extraordinary circumstances where neither of the external examiners can be present at the Viva-Voce examination, the Vice-Chancellor may appoint an external substitute examiner from out of the approved panel.
- v) Chairperson of the BOS as a member
- vi) Co-Supervisor, if any.

(The Head of the Research Centre shall organize the conduct of Viva-Voce examination)

23.2 In case where Research Supervisor cannot attend the Viva-Voce examination or expires before the Viva-Voce examination then Viva- Voce may be conducted with prior approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

- 23.3 The Chairperson of the Viva Voce board shall fix the date of Viva-Voce in consultation with the Research Supervisor and External Examiner.
- 23.4 The Viva-Voce examination should primarily be designed to test the understanding of the candidate on the subject matter of the thesis including techniques/methodology employed and the competence in the general field of study. Any of the points raised by the examiners should be clarified during the Viva-Voce examination, and the report of the examiners shall be made available to the Board of the Viva-Voce examination. At the Viva-Voce examination, the candidate shall produce all the relevant documents, materials, publications etc., connected with the research.
- 23.5 A copy of the thesis shall be kept in the library of the Research Centre for reference of students who want to participate in the open viva-voce at least for 10 days before the date of viva-voce examination.
- 23.6 In the case of candidates who are abroad and unable to be present physically, Viva-Voce examination may be held through video-conference mode as described above (with open viva) after the candidate pays the additional fees prescribed by the University from time to time.

24.0 Award of Ph.D. Degree

- 24.1 After the candidate successfully completes the Viva-voce examination, the Chairperson of the Viva-Voce Board shall consolidate the recommendations for the award of Ph.D. Degree based on the following :
- (a) The reports of the examiners who adjudicated the thesis and
 - (b) The evaluation of the candidate's performance at the viva-voce examination.

The Chairperson of the Viva-Voce board shall submit the consolidated report to the Registrar of the University, and candidate shall be awarded the Ph.D. Degree with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

- 24.2 A candidate who expires before undergoing the Ph.D. Viva-Voce test and in whose case the evaluation reports from all the referees are favorable, shall be awarded the Ph.D. degree posthumously.

25.0 Depository with UGC

Following the successful completion of the evaluation process and announcement of the award of Ph.D. degree, the University shall submit a soft copy of the Ph.D. thesis to the UGC within a period of thirty days, for posting the same in INFLIBNET, accessible to all Institutions/Universities.

26.0 Cancellation of Registration /Withdrawal of the Degree

If any plagiarism and / or academic misrepresentation is brought to the notice of the University, before or after the award of the Ph.D. Degree, the University shall cancel the Ph.D. registration or withdraw the Ph.D. Degree after due investigation by the University.

27.0 Publication of the Thesis

The thesis may be published after the award of the Ph.D. Degree with permission from the University considering the adjudicators' recommendations. Two copies of the published work shall be submitted to the University Library by the candidate for the purpose of record.

28.0 Grievance Redressal

In case of conflict arising between a candidate and the Research Supervisor, the Grievance cell constituted by the University may resolve the issue and recommend for initiating necessary action by the University. The aggrieved parties shall abide by the decision taken by the Vice-Chancellor.

29.0 Repeal and Savings

- 29.1 On the date coming into force of these Ordinances, the Ordinances in force governing Doctoral Degree Programme (which were in force from 2013-14) shall stand repealed.

- 29.2 Notwithstanding such repeal, any action, decision taken or directed by the University under any Ordinance repealed by this Ordinance shall be valid and remain in force notwithstanding such repeal irrespective of anything done or taken under the said Ordinance.
- 29.3 The modifications made by the VICE-CHANCELLOR from time to time in his Ph.D. Regulations shall also be applicable to these Ph.D. Ordinances.
- 29.4 The University shall issue such orders, instructions, etc., and prescribe such format, procedure, etc, as it may deem fit to implement the provisions of these Ordinances.
- 29.5 Specific guidelines/clarifications as may be issued by the University from time to time shall be mandatory for smooth implementation and uniformity.
- 29.6 The issues either not covered in the above Ordinances or arising out of the interpretation of the Ordinance, the decision of the Vice-Chancellor shall be final.

Item No : 2

Sub: Proposal to establish three study and Research Centres at Karnataka State Law University, Hubli.

Karnataka State Law University has proposed to establish centres of research in areas of contemporary issues and importance, as mentioned below. The said centres are very relevant to the present day economic development and growth, which has a great concern for the well being of people of India at large and Karnataka in particular.

1. Democracy and Constitutional Government.
2. Issues in water resource management and Law.
3. Issues in land resource management and Law.

The Syndicate at its meeting held on 24-04-2013, has given its approval for the said proposals.

The basic proposals containing the objectives, programmes, activities and organizational setup pertaining to centres, were sent to Government of Karnataka during March, 2013. In response to the said proposals, Government of Karnataka sought some clarifications:

- (i) Have the proposals been approved by statutory bodies like Finance Committee and Syndicate since they involve financial burdens
- (ii) Details of recurring and non-recurring expenditure and re-sources identified thereon.
- (iii) Details of similar Research Centres established in other Universities if any, their work output, staff pattern expenditure. (Input to be obtained from Universities concerned).
- (iv) Status of tenure of centre proposed: temporary or permanent.

Details of existence of such centres in other Universities of the state were obtained from other Universities. Orally information has been obtained from others, and details considered.

Statute relating to Establishment of "Vijnaneshwara Adhyayana Peeta" at the Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi

PREAMBLE:

The Hon'ble Chief Minister of Karnataka Sri. B. S. Yediyurappa while presenting budget in March 2020 has announced that "Vijnaneshwara Adhyayana Peeta" will be established at a cost of Rs 1 crore in Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi, for carrying out research on great personalities of Karnataka.

This provides a unique opportunity to the Karnataka State Law University to undertake focused research about the great personalities of the state who have made invaluable contribution from ancient to contemporary periods to the field of law and justice.

Eminent scholars who have made contribution to the field of law may be invited to Chair the Adhyana Peeta. The University shall select an eminent academician or retired judge or professor to work as the Chair Professor of the Adhyana Peeta. He will deliver special lectures at the University and also undertake research. The Adhyana Peeta will also undertake research projects and document contributions of legal luminaries from Karnataka, organised seminars, conferences, etc and bring out publications to contribute to the field of knowledge. This will be of immense help for the students of Karnataka State Law University.

In order to establish the "Vijnaneshwara Adhyayana Peeta" a set of Statutes is framed as follows in exercise of powers conferred by Sec.5(xi), Section 46 (8) read with section 47 of the Karnataka State Law University Act 2009, the syndicate makes the following statutes.
