PREAMBLE

Whereas, The Karnataka State Law University (KSLU), Hubli, Karnataka, India was established under the Karnataka State Law University Act (Karnataka Act No. 11 of 2009) in 2009 with the Governor as the Chancellor, by virtue of his office, and is the single largest affiliating university in the country having 92 colleges under its umbrella. It is a 'People's University' with an aspiration to provide quality legal education totally socially relevant and accessible to everyone. With its Motto as "Indian Roots and Global Heights", the KSLU is providing five year double degree LL.B. courses, three year LL.B. course, in addition to various LL.M., Diploma and Certificate courses in its constituent institution - KSLU's Law School, and affiliated colleges and P.G. Departments under its jurisdiction.

Whereas, The University of Pardubice is a modern and dynamic public higher education institution which prepares specialists for successful careers in a wide variety of professions and offers Bachelor's Master's and Doctoral degree study programmes in more than one hundred and thirty study specializations. The University of Pardubice extending a sixty year long tradition broadens the universal scale of scientific disciplines and creates an open international community. The University of Pardubice is one of 26 public higher education institutions in the Czech Republic, and the only higher university-type educational institution in the Pardubice Region. It has 7 faculties with over 10 thousand students. Its educational, scientific, research and development activities are realized with accordance to the Higher Education Act No. 111/1998, and towards the European Higher Education and Research Area (EHEA and ERA).

Whereas, KSLU desires to establish academic collaboration with Institutions of excellence in higher education and research at the international level and The University of Pardubice, Czech Republic is one among such recognized institutions.

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

This MoU is signed between the University of Pardubice as First Party and KSLU as Second Party for the purpose of Academic Collaboration at academic levels that will encompass exchange of students and members of faculty between the two parties. In addition, active efforts will be made to develop joint training and research programmes that will be pursued in a collaborative spirit. Some of the collaborative areas include the following.

1. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF COOPERATION:

- 1.1. The University of Pardubice and KSLU shall collaborate in mutually agreeable academic events, in teaching, training and research, wherever feasible. Such collaboration will be based on mutually agreeable terms and conditions specifically agreed for each of the collaborative efforts;
- 1.2. Faculty members from each of these universities shall be invited for important seminars, conferences and for teaching at P.G. and doctoral level. The financial implications shall be worked out on a case to case basis;
- 1.3. These modalities for a similar exchange of researchers and faculty members will be laid down through mutual discussion that should be made operational for the mutually agreed period;
- 1.4. Ph.D. Scholars of both the Universities are welcome to make use of the library resources of each other and to have academic interaction with the faculty;
- 1.5. Research Scholars and Teaching Faculty of both The University of Pardubice and KSLU will explore possibility of taking up collaborative research work and also apply for funding from national and international agencies, governments and other funding agencies;
- 1.6. That for collaborative research projects, publications, Intellectual Property Rights will be shared in proportion to the input by each party;
- 1.7. Any financial implication emerging out of such collaborations (other than the fees of the students etc.) shall be worked out and decisions will be taken with mutual agreement.

2. AREAS OF COOPERATION

This Memorandum expresses a mutual desire by The University of Pardubice and KSLU to cooperate in building intellectual and research capacity and scholarship on a non-exclusive basis. Additional areas of co-operation may be added by written consent of the two parties. Both parties will act in good faith to ensure that the objectives in this Memorandum are realized. However, it is understood that each party has the right to discontinue discussions and negotiations without any responsibility for cost and expenses or damages, of whatever nature, of the party in the event that the parties are unable to agree on the terms of one or more definitive agreements.

3. TERMS OF AGREEMENT

Progress in realizing the terms and conditions referred to herein will be reviewed periodically as mutually agreed and the memorandum may be amended at any time by mutual consent in writing.

Both parties reserve the right to terminate this memorandum by either party giving six months written notice to the other. The implementation and/or continuance of programmes or projects established pursuant to this Memorandum prior to the effective date of termination shall not be affected by the termination of this Memorandum.

4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

4.1. In respect of each project and programme of co-operation, the parties shall negotiate and mutually agree in writing on their respective rights to intellectual property and commercial exploitation of the same (including without limitation, trademarks and service marks, copyrights, patents, designs and confidential information pertaining thereto).

4.2. Neither party shall, at any time disclose to any third party any confidential information of the other party which is acquired in the course of activities under this Memorandum, a collaborative project or programme, without the prior consent of the other party in writing. The confidentiality obligations herein will not apply to information in the public domain; information in the possession of the receiving party prior to the disclosure of the information; information which is independently developed by the receiving party; information required to be released by law; and information which is rightfully received by the receiving party from third parties without any breach of confidentiality obligations.

5. NON-BINDING NATURE OF MEMORANDUM

Nothing in this Memorandum shall be construed as creating any contract, partnership, agency or other legal relationship between the parties. This Memorandum is only a non-binding statement of intent to foster genuine and mutually beneficial collaboration.

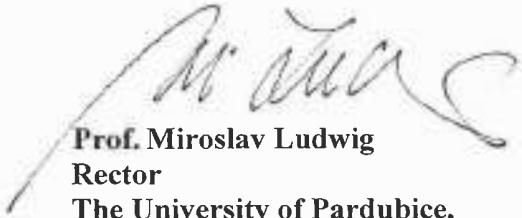

6. TERMINATION

6.1 This memorandum shall come into force immediately upon its signature by the parties.

6.2 The validity of the MoU is initially for a period of five years from the date of signing this MoU. The validity can be extended on mutual agreement.

6.3 This MoU can be terminated by either of the parties by giving advance notice of six months and without jeopardizing the coursework or registration of any of the students of either institutions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this MoU was executed by the parties hereto on this Twenty Eighth Day of January, 2012.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

KARNATAKA STATE LAW UNIVERSITY, HUBLI

AND

BMS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, BANGALORE

FOR FACILITATING COLLABORATIVE RESEARCH, TRAINING AND EXTENSION ACTIVITIES IN LEGAL EDUCATION

The Karnataka State Law University (KSLU) was established in January, 2009 with its headquarters at Navanagar, Hubli. It is a 'People's University' with an aspiration to provide quality legal education totally socially relevant and accessible to everyone. The KSLU is the single largest federal university in the country having 92 colleges under its umbrella. The KSLU campus is coming up on a sprawling 55 acres of beautiful landscape at Navanagar in Hubli. KSLU is actively participating in the national level efforts to transform legal education of the country to meet national and global challenges. Its vision of transforming Karnataka into a legally conscious society by providing quality legal education which is professionally competent and socially relevant can be rapidly achieved by adopting the contemporary information communication technology (ICT). KSLU is establishing KSLU-Cloud for secured law knowledge sharing and administration of legal education institutions in the State of Karnataka.

B.M.S Institute of Technology (BMSIT) was founded by the Late founder Sri B.S Narayan in 2002, but the roots for this were laid back in 1946 when his father, the Late founder Sri B.M Sreenivasaiah, started the B.M.S College of Engineering, Bangalore. Late Sri B.M Sreenivasaiah is considered as one of the forerunners for establishing technical education in Bangalore, thus making Bangalore as one of the premier education hubs of engineering & technical education in India.

BMSIT has successfully completed 10 years and it is a matter of great pride that the BMS Institute of Technology is recognized as one of the top colleges in the state of Karnataka.

The Vice-Chancellor, Karnataka State Law University, and Chairman, Board of Governor of BMSIT have arrived at an agreement for mutual co-operation in research, training and extension activities between two Institutions. Hence, this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).

The following are the terms of agreement.

Article I

BMSIT has many well-equipped laboratories and state of art high-end software laboratory facilities in specific areas of Science and Technology.

The College has many Professors and Scientists who have expertise in the respective areas of research, training and extension.

The college will facilitate the following:

- Make available the facilities like laboratories, workshops and library etc at the college to the post graduate and research students of the departments of Physics, Material Science, Computer Science and Electronics of Karnataka State Law University, for project work, conducting experiments, reference works free of cost and also provide accommodation in the hostels during those periods on mutually agreeable terms.
- Prepare joint research projects, which are mutually beneficial to both the Institutions, for funding by various agencies in India and abroad.
- To depute Scientists / Professors to Karnataka State Law University, to deliver lectures and consultations in research, prepare project proposals, extension activities, etc. on mutually agreeable terms.

IQAC COORDINATOR
Karnataka State Law University
Hubballi-25.

Article II

Karnataka State Law University will facilitate the following:

- Accord recognition to the college as an Institution for conducting research and studies leading to PhD degree of Karnataka State Law University, in specific areas of Science and Technology in accordance with the University Rules and Regulations.
- Accord recognition to Scientists / Professors of the college based on their individual merit and in accordance with the University Rules and Regulations as guides / co-guides of research (Ph.D.) scholars working in the two institutions.
- Permits the recognized Scientists/Professors to be guides/ co-guides of post graduate students and research (Ph.D.) scholars working in the two Institutions.
- Offer the laboratory facilities of the Departments of Computer Science, Materials Science, Physics and Electronics to Scientists / Professors of the college free of cost.
- Prepare joint research projects which are mutually beneficial to both the institutions, to be submitted for funding by various agencies in India and abroad.
- Permits the post graduate students, research scholars and faculty members of the Department of Physics, Material Science, Electronics and Computer Science to visit the college for conducting practical, project work, extension activities etc. on mutually agreeable terms.

Article III

- The MOU between the two institutions may be supplemented by detailed work plans to be developed jointly which describe more specifically the activities to be carried out under this collaborative program.

- If need arises, Karnataka State Law University, and the college may constitute a Joint Committee to work out the practical problems of collaboration if any, between the two institutions in general and to ensure proper and effective implementation of this MOU.
- Such details as agreed upon will be effective by exchange of letters between the Karnataka State Law University, and the college and such letters shall form part of this agreement.

Article IV

- The benefits such as improved technology, materials, machinery, designs, techniques and awards accrued or arising from this collaborative effort may be used by either or both the parties with due recognition of each parties contribution.
- The results from this collaborative research may be used by either or both the parties with due recognition of each party's contribution.

Article V

This agreement shall be in effect initially for a period of ten years from the date on which this MOU is signed by both the parties and may be renewed thereafter, if mutually agreed. Either party may terminate the agreement by written notification sent to the proper Officer of the institution. Such notice must be received by either party six months prior to the effective termination date.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

KARNATAKA STATE LEGAL SERVICES AUTHORITY, BANGALORE

AND

KARNATAKA STATE LAW UNIVERSITY, HUBLI

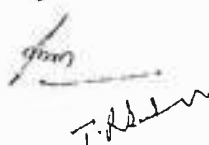

FOR SETTING UP OF LEGAL SERVICES CLINICS IN THE UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGES

* * *

Karnataka State Legal Services Authority, Bangalore, is a Statutory Body constituted under the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987. Hon'ble Mr. Justice D.H. Waghela, Chief Justice, High Court of Karnataka is the Patron-in-Chief and Hon'ble Mr. Justice N. K. Patil, Judge, High Court of Karnataka is the Executive Chairman. The Authority is constituted to translate the goals of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 into reality; viz: to provide free and competent Legal Services to the weaker sections of the society, to ensure that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of economic or other disabilities and to organize Lok Adalats to secure that the operation of the legal system promotes justice on a basis equal opportunity. Creating legal awareness, legal aid and resolution of disputes through amicable settlement are the main functions of the Authority.

The Karnataka State Law University (KSLU) was established in January, 2009 with its headquarters at Navanagar, Hubli, represented by its Vice Chancellor. It is a 'People's University' with an aspiration to provide quality legal education totally socially relevant and accessible to everyone. meet national and global challenges. Its vision of transforming Karnataka into a legally conscious society by providing quality legal education which is professionally competent and socially relevant can be achieved by associating with appropriate authorities and institutions and jointly undertake activities for the good of the society.

The Executive Chairman, Karnataka State Legal Services Authority, Bangalore and the Vice Chancellor, Karnataka State Law University have arrived at an agreement for mutual co-operation in establishing and operating Legal Aid Clinics and undertake Legal Literacy Programmes. Hence, this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU).

The following are the terms of agreement.

Article I

Section 4(k) of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 mandates the National Legal Services Authority to develop, in consultation with the Bar Council of India, programmes for clinical legal education and promote, guide and supervise the establishment and working of Legal Services Clinics in Universities and Law Colleges.

The National Legal Services Authority has already notified the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Aid Clinics) Regulations, 2011. Regulations 22 to 26 which are applicable to Student Legal Aid Clinics.

The National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics in Universities, Law Colleges and other Institutions) Scheme, 2013 provides sufficient logistics in the form of financial assistance and also technical resources amongst others. It delineates the activities of the Student Legal Aid Clinics and also provides for documentation and reporting procedures.

Legal Aid Clinics aim at two objectives. One is to improve the clinical legal skills of the students and the second is to inculcate an attitude amongst the students to provide effective legal services to the poor and marginalized people.

In this context the Karnataka State Legal Services Authority, Bangalore, shall equip Students Legal aid Clinics established at the University and the Law Colleges affiliated to the University as under:

1. Provide printed literature to the Student Legal aid Clinics.
2. Depute its officers and Advocates on its panel to participate in the legal aid, legal literacy and other programmes organized.
3. Extend financial support either directly or through its local offices.
4. Sensitize and train the faculty and officers in organizing and providing legal services.
5. Provide necessary logistics to realize the objectives of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, and translate the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Aid Clinics) Regulations, 2011 and the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics in Universities, Law Colleges and other Institutions) Scheme, 2013 into reality.

Article II

The Karnataka State Law University will facilitate the following:

1. Endeavour to realize the objectives of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987, and translate the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Aid Clinics) Regulations, 2011 and the National Legal Services Authority (Legal Services Clinics in Universities, Law Colleges and other Institutions) Scheme, 2013 into reality through the Student Legal aid Clinics established at the University and the Law Colleges affiliated to the University or the Legal Aid Clinics to be set up by the University or the Law Colleges in the villages.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

PREAMBLE

The National Law School of India University (NLSIU) University, Bangalore, established under National Law School of India Act (Karnataka Act 22 of 1986) in 1987 with the Chief Justice of India as its Chancellor, is the first and the only law university fully supported by the Bar Council of India and the Bench. One of the main objectives of NLSIU is to 'bring legal education on par with other professional courses like medicine and engineering, where a student fresh out of high-school can make an immediate career choice'. The NLSIU has been conducting a strong B.A., LL.B.(Hons.), LL.M., M.Phil., Ph.D. and LL.D. programs in all Social Sciences and Law. The NLSIU has made strides in teaching the law courses with both interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary dimensions and facilitating research and publication on those lines since its establishment.

The Karnataka State Law University (KSLU), Hubballi, was established in January, 2009, by the Government of Karnataka under the Karnataka State Law University Act, 2009, with its headquarters at Navanagar, Hubballi. It is a 'People's University' with an aspiration to provide quality legal education totally socially relevant and accessible to everyone. The KSLU, located in the State of Karnataka, is the single largest federal university in the country having 107 colleges under its umbrella.

Whereas, KSLU desires to establish academic collaboration with Institutions of excellence in Social Sciences in the country and NLSIU is one among such recognized institutions and seeks to promote the institutional collaborations through this Memorandum of Understanding.

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

This Memorandum of Understanding is signed between the NLSIU as First Party and KSLU as Second Party for the purpose of Academic Collaboration that will encompass exchange of students and members of faculty between the two parties as well as other academic activities, research and publication. In addition to this, active efforts will be made to develop joint training and research programmes that will be pursued in a collaborative spirit. Some of the collaborative areas include the following.

I. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF COOPERATION:

1. NLSIU and KSLU shall collaborate in mutually agreeable academic events, teaching, training and research, wherever feasible. Such collaboration will be based on mutually agreeable terms and conditions specifically agreed for each of the collaborative efforts;
2. The Ph.D. candidates in interdisciplinary areas of research involving law from the Karnataka State Law University shall work under the supervision of the faculty members of NLSIU or if agreed, jointly supervised by the faculty members from the two parties;
3. Faculty members from each of these universities shall be invited for important seminars, conferences and for teaching at P.G. and doctoral level. The financial implications shall be worked out on a case to case basis;
4. Those modalities for a similar exchange of researchers and faculty members will be laid down through mutual discussion that should be made operational for a period of five years;

6. Research Scholars and Teaching Faculty of both NLSIU and KSLU will explore possibility of taking up collaborative research work and also apply for funding from national and international agencies, governments and other funding agencies;
7. Any financial implication emerging out of such collaborations (other than the fees of the students etc.) shall be worked out and decisions will be taken with mutual agreement.

II. AREAS OF COOPERATION

This Memorandum expresses a mutual desire by NLSIU and KSLU to cooperate in building intellectual and research capacity and scholarship. Additional areas of co-operation may be added by written consent of the two parties. Both parties will act in good faith to ensure that the objectives in this Memorandum are realized.

III. TERMS OF AGREEMENT

Progress in realizing the terms and conditions referred to herein will be reviewed periodically as mutually agreed and the memorandum may be amended at any time by mutual consent in writing. Both parties reserve the right to terminate this memorandum by giving six months written notice to the other. The implementation and/or continuance of programmes or projects established pursuant to this memorandum prior to the effective date of termination shall not be affected by the termination of this Memorandum.

IV. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND CONFIDENTIALITY

1. In respect of each project and programme the parties shall negotiate and mutually agree in writing on their respective rights to intellectual property and commercial exploitation of the same (including without limitation, trademarks and service marks, copyrights, patents, designs and confidential information pertaining thereto).
2. Neither party shall, at any time disclose to any third party any confidential information of the other party which is acquired in the course of activities under this Memorandum, a collaborative project or a programme, without the prior consent of the other party in writing.

The confidentiality obligations herein will not apply to information in the public domain; information in the possession of the receiving party prior to the disclosure of the information; information which is independently developed by the receiving party; information required to be released by law; and information which is rightfully received by the receiving party from third parties without any breach of confidentiality obligations.
