Anti Ragging Squad

Ragging is a criminal offence and is governed by the UGC Guidelines on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions. The University is firm on ensuring that the UGC framed regulations on prohibition, prevention and elimination of ragging are strictly followed on campus.

Prohibition of Anit-Raging in and off the Campus

- Ragging is strictly prohibited as per UGC Guidelines.
- Students indulging in Ragging will be severely punished.
- The punishment includes suspension/dismissal from the roles of the institute apart from prosecuting the indulgent with criminal charges.
- Any Student found indulging in any act of Ragging which is a subversive of Law School discipline shall be dealt with very strictly.
- The Anti ragging Committee is authorized to take strict action against the students indulging in ragging and any such action may also call for cancellation of admission of those students or lodging FIR with local/Police authorities against the students found indulged in ragging.

"Ragging is a punishable offence" therefore, students are advised to refrain from it.

Instructions to the Students

- You do not have to submit to ragging in any form.
- You do not have to compromise with your dignity and self-respect.
- You can report incidents of ragging to the authorities concerned.
- You can contact any member of the Anti-Ragging Squad / Anti Ragging Committee of the Law School.
- You can submit your grievance either by dropping written complaint in complaint box placed in the Campus or mail your complaint on this address antiraggingkslu@gmail.com and would be treated by the authorities in strict confidence.
- Take active part in all institutional activities intended to end ragging on campus.
