

NSS SPECIAL CAMPS

As per the fundamental principles of National Service Scheme, a NSS Volunteer is required to remain in constant touch with the community hence particular village or villages are selected for implementation of NSS Programmes. The NSS Volunteers are required to live with the members of the community for 07 days and learn from their experience. These Special Camps are organized at two levels that are NSS Special Camps and National Integration Camps.

1. National Integration camp:

The National Integration Camp is organized every year in different parts of the country. Each camp involves 150 NSS Volunteers to undertake the scheduled activities this camp makes NSS Volunteers aware of India's rich cultural diversity, National pride through knowledge about India and Integration of the nation through social service. 150 NSS Volunteers across India/Karnataka are brought together for seven days to uphold the spirit of youth in nation building and participate in various social service activities to make a mark towards a better society.

One - Day Workshop on, 'Reading of Constitution'

The Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi NSS Cell organises one - Day Workshop on, 'Reading of Constitution'. On 28-01-2021 Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi NSS Cell, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, State NSS Cell, in collaboration with Karnataka Janapada University, Gotagodi NSS Cell organized a One - Day Workshop on, 'Reading of Constitution'

Hon'ble Mr. Justice A. S. Paschapure, Rtd. Judge, Karnataka High Court, delivered the inaugural address. He spoke about the three ways of interpretation of statutes, namely literal rule, golden rule and mischief rule. Sharing his experiences of reading the Constitution, he said that after retirement his experience was altogether different than reading the Constitution in different capacities as a student, advocate and judge. He further added that duty - conscious approach is positive as compared to a right conscious one. He then added that Indenisation of the Judiciary has yet to take place and if it is confined to a chamber without contact with society, common sense will go down. He concluded by saying that the Constitution has to be interpreted in accordance with the context of the culture of the country and called upon the students to become lawyers with ethics and values.

Prof. Vithal Bhandari, MGC College, Siddapur, Secretary compared the reading of the Constitution to lighting a lamp and said that in order to strengthen democracy we must understand, inculcate and imbibe the Constitution in our lives.
