Vice-Chancellor's Desk

The KSLU family takes great pride and pleasure to present Amruta Vahini, the second issue of Karnataka State Law University's NEWSLETTER. Karnataka State Law University was established in the year 2009 to provide quality Legal Education in the State and has obtained recognition from UGC under Section 2(f) and Bar Council of India, New Delhi. As a nascent and emerging Institution established with august objectives and role, it recognizes the aspirations and responsibilities expected to be performed by it, and strives hard to achieve them. As an enthusiastic and wide-eyed toddler, the University has ventured and taken steady steps towards achievement of academic excellence by organizing and involving itself in academic activities, co-curricular activities, extension activities, cultural activities and extra-curricular activities. Besides the serene and congenial atmosphere, the University provides a perfect ambience for future lawyers and helps them in the realization of their goals.

MOOT COURT

The First International Moot Court Competition in International Law was held from 15th to 17th Nov. 2013.

The First International Moot Court Competition in International Law was Inaugurated by Prof. (Dr.) Venkata Rao, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, NLSIU, Bangalore. He advised the students to pursue their excellence in International Law by not only learning International Law but also by doing research in the field of International Law, as we do not have enough scholars in this arena. He reminded the participants by quoting from "Mahatma Gandhi's Experiments with truth" that competition should bring out the best in human beings rather than the worst.

Prof. S. G. Bhat, Former Vice-Chancellor, National University of Advanced Legal Studies, Kochi was the Chief Guest of the inaugural programme. In his speech he noted that earlier, mooting opportunities for the students were not encouraging compared to the present and urged the students to make the best use of mooting opportunities which will help them in grooming their career in law. Shri. Satish Maneshinde, Advocate, Mumbai, was the Guest of Honour. In his address, he pointed out that lawyers have an important role to play in society and he gave helpful tips to budding lawyers to not only be committed to their clients but also to be always honest to the court and thereby, help in the administration of justice. Prof. T. R. Subramanya, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, KSLU, Hubli in his Presidential address, said, foreseeability, perseverance and excellence are the qualities which any lawyer should imbibe.

Moot Court in action

Participants and Audience

Valedictory Function of The First International Moot Court Competition in International Law, presided by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jawad Rahim, Judge, High Court of Karnataka and Hon'ble Mr. Justice L. Narayana Swamy, Judge, High Court of Karnataka.

In his valedictory address Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jawad Rahim, pointed out that the purpose of moot court is not only to have exchange of thoughts, but also to explore and excel in areas in which one is not acquainted with. On the qualities of a lawyer, he asserted that lawyers should have mastery in language, mannerisms and persuasive eloquence. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Narayana Swamy started with his note that "the end of law is justice and the purpose of arguing the law is to enlighten the judge to enable him to render justice". In the presidential remarks Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, KSLU, expressed that "mooting culture is not learning alone, but cultivation of character and humility in oneself".
