INSTITUTIONAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Being a professional course, the students who are admitted for this programme are expected to have certain minimum requirements in terms of their behaviour, value system and intellectual calibre. Students are required to strictly follow the following minimum code of conduct, violation of which would result in cancellation of their admission and from the rolls of this University.

Identity Card

At the time of admission each student will be issued an identity card which can be easily clipped to his or her upper garment. Every student who enters the Law School premises is expected to wear this identity card, failing which the student will be warned and suitable disciplinary action will be initiated if the same is repeated.

Dress Code

Students must wear Kadhi every Monday, and on other days they should wear black and white uniform, for any academic activity/programme organized in the Law School. Students are expected to dress in black and white, if they fail to meet these standards, the student may be sent home to change clothes and will be issued warning, disciplinary action will be initiated if dress code violations continue.

Mentor System

In order to ensure overall development of the students, the Law School has evolved a unique mentor system in keeping with the motto 'Excellentia Justitia et Humanitas'. Each student will be attached to a faculty member who has to advise, guide, discuss university related issues and academic activities. For this purpose, the students are required to meet the concerned faculty member every week.

Compulsory Class Attendance

Students are required to have minimum 75% attendance in each subject for every semester, failing which the concerned student will not be allowed to answer end semester examination. Marks are allotted for attending classes.

Use of Mobiles/ Cameras

The University strictly prohibits the use of mobiles/cameras during class hours. Any student found guilty of the same, will be subjected to disciplinary action.

Use of Library

Students should also note that the library is meant only for learning i.e. reading and writing. They should observe complete silence when they are in the library. Students are expected to read and follow the regulations notified on the library notice board, from time to time.

Cleanliness

Students are strictly prohibited from writing anything on the walls, desk and benches or from indulging in defacing/graffiti writing especially in the toilets. Anyone found doing so will have to pay the cost of painting the wall or room as the case may be.

Sports & Gymnasium

The Gymnasium and other sports facilities are available for the use of student only during recess or beyond their class hours. They should obtain the sport material by producing their identity card. They should make sure that the use of the Gymnasium and other sports facilities do not distract the normal conducting of class or other activities in the Law School. The Students are expected to practice for various sports competitions and sports activities after their class hours. Students who are attending sports practice or participating in Competitive Sports Games should ensure that their Movement Diary is signed by the Sports Director on day-to-day basis. They should also obtain the counter signature of the Director for such sports activity once a week.

Nomination of Class Representative

Meritorious students who have minimum 75% attendance in all subjects for the semester are deemed eligible to be members of the College Students Council. This is for the purpose of smooth interaction and co-operation,

Ban on Ragging in the University

Ragging has been banned and made punishable offence as per section 116 of the Karnataka Education Act, 1983 and its Directives. Ragging is banned in the University's Law School and anyone found indulging in Ragging is likely to be punished which may include expulsion from the Law School.

Staff Student Relations

The students are expected to maintain cordial and respectful relations with each of the staff. They should also ensure that this relationship is only for purpose of pursuing their programme of study at this Law School.

KSLU/Reg/NAAC/TQAC/2022-23/

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

The Student code of Conduct sets out the standard of conduct expected of students. It holds individuals and groups responsible for the consequences of their actions. Failure to fulfill the responsibilities may result in the withdrawal of privileges or the imposition of sanctions. KSLU is a community of students, faculty and staff involved in learning, teaching and research and other activities. All members of this community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that contributes positively to an environment in which respect, civility, diversity, opportunity and inclusiveness are valued, so as to assure the success of both the individual and the community. The student code of conduct reflects a concern for these values and tries to ensure that members of KSLU and the public can make use of and enjoy the activities, facilities and benefits of KSLU without undue interference from others.

The Code applies to conduct that occurs on or near the premises of the KSLU Law school and University. It applies to conduct that occurs elsewhere if it is related to University sponsored programmes or activities, or in the context of a relationship between student and a third party that involves the student standing status or academic record at KSLU Law School.

The Law school rules have been divided into various sections and students are expected to adhere to the code of conduct mentioned therein. Please note that noncompliance with the school rules shall lead to consequences which may also include dismissal from the law school.

1. Students will not use obscene or invasive language.
2. Students will not wreck or damage school property. Any damage to school property should be reported to the Director immediately.
3. Students will not litter in (or outside) the school premises.
4. Students will not miss classes while in school and will not leave the school campus during school hours without prior permission of the Director.
5. Pestering, aggression or violence in any form is gross misconduct for which the school will take strict disciplinary action if required.
6. Students are expected to have respect for their peers and be sensitive to differences among themselves due to physical, cultural and economic considerations.
7. Students are expected to be environment friendly.
8. Strict action will be taken against students who are found using illicit or narcotic substances and behaving inappropriately on the premises.

9. Students who violate the school rules will not be permitted to represent the school in any inter- school sports or other activities irrespective of individual interests or talent.

Punctuality

1. Students are expected to have a strict adherence to school timings. Students will not be permitted to enter the school after commencement of school time.
2. Students must report to class on time after break or activity periods.

Grooming

1. Students should be in the proper uniform as prescribed.
2. Students are not permitted to wear expensive or flashy jewellery, watches and other accessories.

Mobile and Digital Technology

1. Students are not permitted to carry mobile phones on the school premises. In case a student has to carry a phone for extraneous reasons, arrangements will be made to deposit the phone at the school office during school hours.
2. Students will not indulge in inappropriate use of the school computers or networks.
3. Students are not permitted to bring valuable electronic devices (iPods, cameras and tablets etc). Without the prior permission of the principal.
4. Strict action will be taken if it comes to the notice of the school authorities that any student is involved in possession and circulation of inappropriate digital content on mobile devices.

Leave of Absence

1. Students must have a minimum attendance of 75% during the academic year in order to take the school examinations.
2. In case of missing school, a leave application must be presented to the school duly signed by the parents/guardian.
3. In case of absenteeism due to illness, students must present a medical certificate to the school.
4. Long leave may only be taken with the prior permission of the Director.
5. No student is permitted to leave school during school hours without a valid permission slip from the class teacher/ Director.

Code of Conduct on the Sports Field

1. Sports are to be played with the correct spirit of sportsmanship.
2. Aggression, fighting on the field and using abusive language will invite strict disciplinary action from the authorities.
