REPORT ON ORIENTATION PROGRAMME FOR DEPUTY DIRECTORS OF STUDENTS WELFARE AND NSS OFFICERS OF THE UNIVERSITY

On 13th October 2017 orientation programme for Deputy Directors of Students Welfare and NSS Officers of the University was organized in the University. Shri Arun Pujar, Director, Regional Directorate of NSS, Bengaluru was the chief guest on the occasion. He said that the aim of the education is to empower the community. The students who are the major beneficiaries of education should take lead in the process of empowerment of community. He said that for law students there is enormous opportunity of rendering community service. He said the students should take active lead in spreading legal awareness in the society so as to create legally conscious society. He said that through such kind of community service the noble objectives of the Constitution of India can be realized.

He called upon the Deputy Directors of Students Welfare and NSS Officers to inspire, motivate the students to participate in community development orientated activities. He said that National Service Scheme is based on Gandhian principles and by rendering community service those principles can be implemented in true sense.

Prof. (Dr.) C. S. Patil, Vice Chancellor (Actg.), while delivering the presidential address said that professional education includes in its ambit the community service. It is more so with legal education. He said that after graduation the students may occupy the higher posts and may frame policies for the government. Until they are aware of societal needs and concerns it may not be possible to frame inclusive policies which may provide for such needs. Hence, the students should volunteer to serve the society and gain experience.

Approximately 60 Deputy Directors of Students Welfare and NSS Officers from different affiliated law colleges of the University participated in the programme. Dr. Ratna R. Bharamgoudar, Registrar (I/c.), Dr. G. B. Patil, Registrar (Eva.) (I/c.) and Shri Sunil N. Bagade, NSS Programme Coordinator, KSLU were present on the occasion.

Ms. Surabhi Kulkarni, student rendered the invocation song and NSS Geete. Ms. Vaishnavi Itagi, student introduced the guest and welcomed the gathering. Ms. Pooja Ballolli, student proposed vote of thanks and Ms. Suman Patil, student compered the programme.
