INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY POLICY

The Karnataka State Law University has adopted the policy of acquiring state of the art infrastructure that can supplement the teaching -- learning process and also administration. It is the policy of the University to have adequate number of computers and other gadgets in this regard.

The policy is to equip each department of the University with adequate number of computers with necessary accessories and software. The communication to the colleges and students is to be through electronic modes via University website and e-mails.

The payment of fees by the colleges to the University is to be through RTGS and the payment of fees, etc by the students of KSLU's Law School is to be also through online mode.

In order to produce technocrat law graduates, hands on experience in handling major legal data bases is to be provided. In this regard, the University Library shall subscribe to the legal databases like SCC online, Manupatra, HeinOnline, WestLaw, etc.

The existing LAN facility in computer lab is serving its purpose to the optimum level. The LAN facility is to be enhanced. Wherever LAN is not available, Wi-Fi facility is to be provided so as to utilize the subscription by the University to the 1 GBPS connection with the Telecom Department. It is proposed to make the whole campus free Wi-Fi zone for the benefit of students and teachers.
